What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime "in the future" while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquillity and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. "Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom)." We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

This week we have heard of many families who are isolating and dealing with Covid. Please these families in your prayers as they recover. If anyone needs help with shopping, meals etc. , please let Jocelyn know.

Calling interested people in historic St

Joseph's Pāuatahanui

St Joseph's Church, established in 1878 belongs to St Theresa's Parish and its cemetery is the resting place for our past parishioners and ancestors, including the earliest settlers. For many years a small group of dedicated "Friends of St Joseph's" have been caring for and welcoming visitors to our historic church on the hill. Maintenance and operation of the whole site is the responsibility of the Parish, and the Friends group wish to re-establish a small representative committee to work under the umbrella of the Resource Committee, for the co-ordination of such matters as maintenance and new works, fundraising, use of the church as a venue for any ongoing activities as well as caring for a sacred place for our loved ones.

A meeting is planned for Sunday 31 July in the hall after Mass at 11am.

Anyone with an interest in what is dreamed of for the future of this historic site is welcome to attend, including non-parishioners and those who wish to be part of the wider "Friends of St Joseph's" support group. susan.bieleski@me.com Mobile: 021 297 4445
